Founded in 1352, Corpus Christi is the sixth-oldest college at the University of Cambridge. Founded by the townspeople rather than a wealthy individual patron like other colleges, Corpus is smaller than most with approximately 250 undergraduates and 200 postgraduates.

Located in the centre of Cambridge, Corpus Christi offers students an exciting opportunity to explore the ancient city that lies right on their doorstep.

Available courses:

- Build the Future: Design, Engineer, Construct

Accommodation:

Bucksmore bedrooms are located in New Court in the heart of the college. All bedrooms are single with shared bathrooms between 4-6 students.

Male and female accommodations are in separate staircases with members of staff spread throughout.

Transfers:

Bucksmore offers a free airport transfer service for all students at Corpus Christi arriving and/or departing between 10:00-20:00 at:

- London Heathrow (LHR)
- London Gatwick (LGW)
- London Stansted (STN)

Students requesting private transfers outside of these destinations and times will be subject to additional charges.

Please see the transfer information page for more details.

Laundry:

Laundry is free and available on-site. Once a week, students must load and empty laundry machines themselves (with staff guidance), though laundry detergent will be provided by Bucksmore.

Did you know?

William Wilkins, who designed New Court in Corpus Christi also went on to design the National Gallery in London. Corpus was his favourite work however, and he is now buried in the college chapel, per his request.

Pelican Bar

The Pelican Bar is a comfortable space with sofas, a pool table and table tennis where students can relax between periods and during free-time. It can also be converted into a space for hosting activities such as casino night and board games nights!

Corpus Main Hall

Known as one of the most beautiful Dining Halls in Cambridge, students will take all of their meals in this new gothic style hall, the walls of which are lined with portraits of previous Masters.
